Covenant's Media Ministry

In addition to our downloadable internet sermons,
Covenant Radio Ministry can be heard on KCWN 99.9 FM
Our worship services are broadcast live every Sunday at 9:30 a.m. and 6:30 p.m.

We also sponsor the Reformed Pulpit heard every weeknight on KCWN at 8:05 p.m.

Our services can also be heard on KCOB 95.9 FM or 1280 AM at 8:00 a.m. on Sunday Mornings.

The congregation is requested to be seated at 9:25 am and 6:25 pm so that they can enjoy the prelude and adopt a worshipful attitude in preparation for the service.

Although Covenant Reformed Church is equipped with ample nursery capacity for both infants and toddlers, parents who wish to take their young children to the sanctuary during worship are welcome to do so. However, if a child becomes disruptive at any time during the service, parents are urged to remove the child promptly in order that the congregation may worship undisturbed.

If you are interested in becoming a member of Covenant Reformed Church or for more information about our church or its ministries, please contact the pastor or the elder at the door.

For the Word of God is living and powerful.

Explanation of Our Worship

This brief explanation is intended to help explain the rationale for our mode of worship. In our day, it is customary to classify worship as "traditional" or "contemporary." Since the God we are worshipping is timeless, we avoid such time-bound references to characterize His worship. We prefer to call our worship "biblical."

While worship is the highlight of our week, indeed of our lives, and while it reunites us with our church family, the focus of worship is not on ourselves, but on God. There are two fundamental principles involved in biblical worship: (1) Worship is governed by what God has revealed about Himself in His Word. A corollary is that worship is to be in accord with what He has prescribed as acceptable worship. (2) Worship is a dialogue between God and His covenant people. So defined, worship is a communication. In this communication God speaks to us through His Word and we respond to Him either in prayer or in singing. Every aspect of worship must have a biblical reason and a biblical defense. It is of utmost importance that we assume a reverential posture in the presence of God.

The Consistory supervises and is responsible for every aspect of our worship service. The pastor, or guest pastor, leads us in worship, under the authority of the Consistory.

The songs we sing are chosen primarily for their theology or biblical accuracy. Biblical worship is aware of the importance of music to God, and has always appreciated melody, harmony, and rhythm. But all of that is secondary to a higher, primary concern: faithfulness to Scripture. Our songs are intended to complement, support, and apply the theme of the message.

1. Call to Worship: The Lord officially summons us to worship Him. This is usually done with the reading of an appropriate Scripture passage.
2. Prayer of Invocation: We call upon the Lord to assist and prepare us for the solemn task of worshipping Him; that our worship would be acceptable to Him.
3. Hymn of Praise: We extol the Lord in singing.
4. God's greeting: God welcomes us in His house of worship, and greets with His "Grace, Peace, and Mercy."
5. Reading of the Law: Here we hear God's law proclaimed to us. The Law is normative for our lives and reveals God's will for Christian living.
6. Hymn of Confession: In acknowledgement of our failure to keep the Law, we implore the Lord's mercy, or sing of His mercy. In some cases, a song of gratitude may also be sung at this point.
7. Assurance of Pardon: In response to our song of penitence, the Lord responds with the assurance that our sins are forgiven in Christ, wholly by grace.
8. Congregational Prayer: Here, the worship leader addresses the Lord with the petitions of the congregation. Prayer is often composed of Adoration, Confession, Thanksgiving, and Supplication, or ACTS.
9. Hymn of Preparation: This song prepares us to hear the word of God, often anticipating the theme of the sermon.
10. Sermon: This is the center of the worship service. It is not because we place a premium on oration or human eloquence. It is because at this point the Lord speaks to His people, through His word and servant. The purpose of a sermon is to focus on Christ and His finished work. The desired response is never "what a preacher," but always "what a Savior!"
11. Hymn of Response: We respond with appropriate singing, again emphasizing the theme of the sermon.
12. Offerings: This is an offering to the Lord, usually for a cause we support.
13. Doxology: This is a song in which we celebrate the glory and supreme majesty of God, while accentuating our complete dependence on Him and His goodness to us.
14. Benediction: The worship service is officially over. The Lord dismisses us with His blessing.

If you have any further questions about our church or ministries, please do not hesitate to contact one of our elders or the Pastor.

"For by grace you have been saved through faith, and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God, not of works, lest anyone should boast."

Ephesians 2:8-9

Welcome to all who worship with us this morning!

Our service will be lead by our guest minister, Rev. Paul Murphy from Messiah's Reformed Fellowship in New York City.

This morning we will prepare our hearts for the celebration of the Lord's Supper which we hope to commemorate next Sunday , October 3, D.V.

Prayer Matters

Birthday

We wish birthday blessings to William Van Maanen (Parish 1), who is 85 today. His address is 510 Washington Street, Pella.

We also wish birthday blessings to Josephine Gosselink (Parish 11), who will be 80 on October 2. Her address is 608 E. 2nd Street Apt. 125, Pella.

Membership

At his request, the memberships of Mr. Joey Braafhart and his baptized daughter Riley have been dismissed so that brother Braafhart might affiliate with the Calvary Christian Reformed Church of Pella. May the Lord grant covenant blessings to Joey, his wife Jennifer, and their children Riley and Brianna in their new church home.

Rev. Murphy will give a presentation after the morning service for those that would like to hear about his ministry. All Adult Sunday School classes will meet in the sanctuary instead of their regular classrooms for the presentation.
